

I do not approve of this proposal. This will cause interference with my HAM radio communications. There is ample bandwidth available with current routing technologies. This is not to mention possible health concerns.